

NAVAL WAR COLLEGE

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

NEWPORT, R. I.

17 JAN 1955

My dear Mr. Dulles:

I am highly pleased that you have accepted my invitation to address the Naval War College on the subject, "Major United States Intelligence Problems," at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, 18 February 1955.

Although you are familiar with our procedures from previous visits, I am enclosing copies of our latest information pamphlet and Catalog of Courses. If there is any further information you desire, I shall be glad to furnish it.

We will be delighted to take advantage of your offer to remain for informal discussions after your lecture. We will plan for you to have luncheon with a small group and then will arrange for an afternoon conference with selected students and staff officers in accordance with any schedule to suit your convenience.

Your arrival plans have been noted. I shall have my aide meet you at Quonset Point Naval Air Station and escort you to the Naval War College. I will arrange return transportation in accordance with your desires.

I am enclosing a copy of the biographic sketch which was distributed to students last year. Will you be so kind as to make any changes you desire and return it to me? I would also appreciate knowing the classification to be assigned to your address.

It will be a great privilege to have you as the guest of the Naval War College once again.

Sincerely yours,

L. D. McCORMICK

Vice Admiral, U. S. Navy

Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
